IMM FRIDAY FLASH TALK

Taking off with new podcast format

The Institute launched a new format of IMM Fridays in 2023 with the introduction of a series of IMM Friday Flash Talk podcasts, held on the last Friday of each month, anchored by renowned journalist Govan Whittle and with insights from marketing enthusiast Tarisai Moffat. Each month the Flash Talks host thought leaders, visionaries and movers-and-shakers on marketing matters in Southern Africa.

WITH ANCHOR GOVAN WHITTLE AND MARKETING ENTHUSIAST TARISAI MOFFAT

The Flash Talks are followed up with a Breakfast session on the first Friday of each month, providing a platform for Corporate and Individual Associates of the IMM to network, and to share their thoughts and insights around the previous Friday's Flash Talk.

The Rise of Podcasts

The comeback kid in marketing's rock 'n roll band?

31 March: The Rise of Podcasts – The comeback kid in marketing's rock 'n roll band?

The series of podcasts was appropriately launched with a topic focussing on the Rise of Podcasts. Director, content strategist, podcaster, musician and general all-round trouble maker, Jon Savage, shared invaluable information and ways to maximise opportunities in this space.

TRADITIONAL ADVERTISING

Is it alive and well in SA?

28 April: Traditional Advertising – Is it alive and well in SA?

Guests Tendai Luwo, Head of Strategy at leading specialist strategic agency David & Langton, and David Gorin of Africa-focused media/advertising representative company Marnox Media shared some interesting statistics and insights, proving that traditional media will continue to be the bedrock of most marketers' advertising strategies.

INFLUENCERS

Are they creating a marketing hype that brands don't want?

26 May: Influencers – Are they creating a marketing hype that brands don't want?

We had an interesting session with Pieter Groenewald, CEO of Nfinity Influencer and founder of theSALT, who convinced us that influencer marketing is not something to be afraid of, but rather something to be managed with the correct vetting and control procedures.
